THEIR FOOTSTEPS GUIDE US ALONG THE PATHS OF KNOWLEDGE

Paul B. Hanawalt, superintendent, and Marion Catron, business manager

SUPERINTENDENT ACTS AS LIAISON MAN

As superintendent, Paul B. Hanawalt with his helpers was responsible for the management of the entire school district. He worked closely with the school board in carrying out their policies. According to one of the superintendent's own definitions of his duties, he was also a liaison man between the teachers and school board.

Marion Catron as business manager was in charge of maintenance, operation, new construction, and much of the purchasing of the school district, but was primarily concerned with the budget.

The school board, elected by the people of the city, determines policies for the schools of the Puyallup system.

Among the problems the school board had to meet this year was that of transportation. Citizens of Puyallup voted to finance the cost of three school buses.

The building program was another problem. As the high school is expected to be overcrowded desperately in a couple of years, a committee was set up to work on the feasibility of building a new junior or senior high school.

Members of the Puyallup school board are Melvin Dennis, Cecil Lepley, Mrs. Eileen Kalles, Howard Thomas, and Dr. Sturdevant, president.

Harry Hansen, principal, and Don Hartung, vice principal

PRINCIPAL MAINTAINS WELL-RUN SCHOOL

As principal of Puyallup high school, Harry Hansen had many important duties to perform.

Mr. Hansen describes his work in this way: ". . . To maintain a well-run and well-regulated school from the first day of school in September until the last day of school in June is my job.

"That means that in everything in which the school takes part, scholastic or athletic, we strive to maintain high standards.

"The philosophy I strive to maintain as principal is for us to do everything to the best of our ability."

As vice principal, Don Hartung was responsible for both junior and senior high assemblies, seeing that lockers were kept in constant repair, keeping order in the halls, and was in charge of disciplining students. Mr. Hartung was also adviser of Viking Knights.

Seven secretaries, four of them in the superintendent's office, were kept busy typing letters, answering telephones, and filing, among many other activities.

P. E. A. SEEKS PROGRESS

Above: "And what do you want for Christmas, little girl?" Santa Claus Munsen asks Marilyn Decker, grade school teacher.

The purpose of Puyallup Education Association, as stated in its constitution, is "to promote within the teaching group the highest type of professional practices."

J. Alden Vanderpool is Washington state director of the National Education Association. P.E.A. is affiliated with both the Washington Education Association and the National Education Association.

This year there were 127 teachers in P.E.A., making membership 100%. Puyallup's is one of the few school systems in the state in which there has been 100% membership for 30 years.

Activities for the past year included a salmon bake, legislative dinner, Christmas party, and a spring picnic. In October P.E.A. was in charge of the community chest drive in the schools.

THEY HELP AROUND SCHOOL

It was a 24-hour job for the four custodians to keep the school in spic-and-span shape. Most students know the day custodians but not so many are acquainted with Harry Brian, the night custodian whose work day doesn't begin until 4 p.m.

A now-familiar face to the girls at P.H.S. is Louise Redford, the new matron this year. Her duties included looking after girls who became ill at school, and helping to find girls' lost articles.

In the cafeteria the cooking staff handled the new system of serving a plate lunch on one line and a la carte on the other.

Below: Cooks were Lola Ausborn, Mabel Lockwood, Ethel Nichols, Estella Steiner, Mary Sloat, and Elizabeth MacAllister.

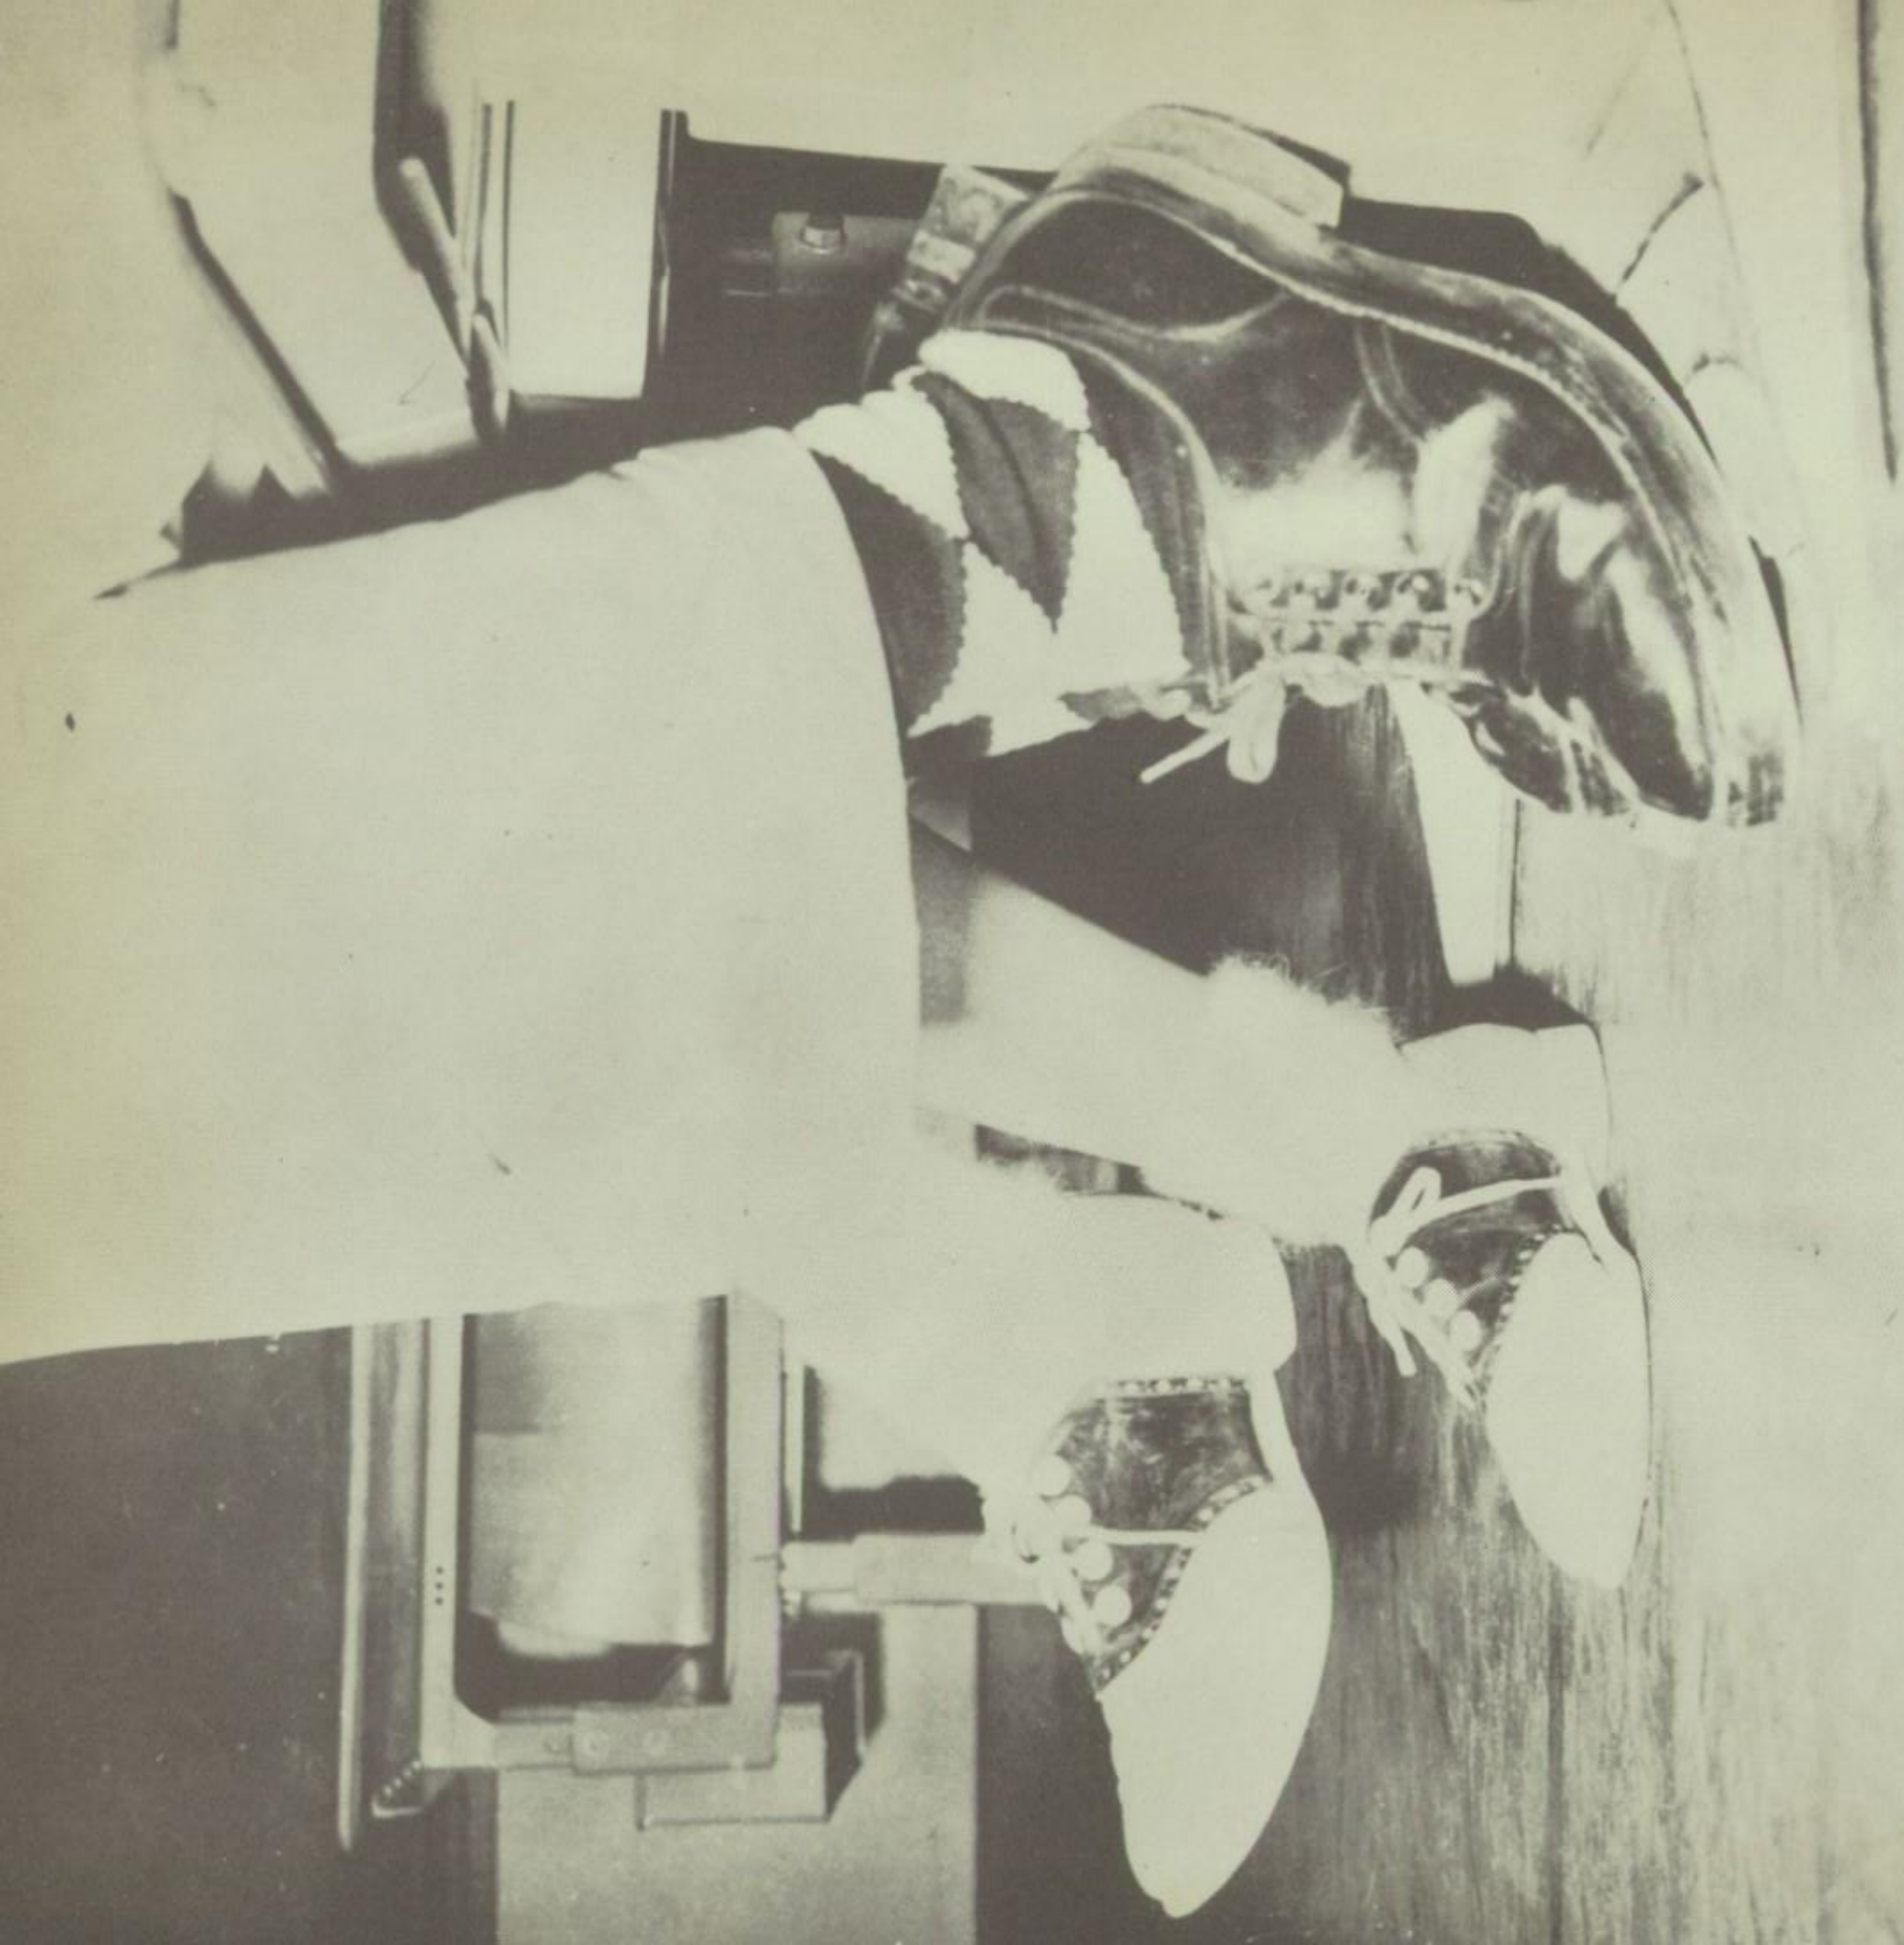
STUDENTS' FOOTSTEPS LEAD INTO NEW ADVENTURES IN LEARNING



SENIORS REACH END OF SCHOOL CAREERS

The end has come—no more will the feet of the class of 1953 be hurrying from class to class, dancing at the Rec, marching into the office, or at attention for the flag salute. They have graduated, but they will always remember . . .

When their footsteps set the pace for junior high, as the freshmen class in 1950 which was guided by president, Jack Beck; vice president, Pat Bogrand; secretary, Virginia Bonn; and yell leader, Donna Bueing. They placed fourth in the season ticket drive, won third in the stunt assembly. Students danced to "Songbook Serenade", in the spring. They chose green and white for class colors and their yell, "We're the class that holds the key, 1-9-5-3!"

As sophomores, the chief executives were Ray Barth, Bob Huber, Judy Marker, and Enid Watkin. They hopped at the "Bunny Hop", and captured second place in the season ticket drive and with their stunt, "Pearly Gates".

In their junior year the class gained fame by winning first in the season ticket drive and by stealing second place in the stunt race with "Mortgage Madness". In April, Puyallup students were found whirling to "Paris in the Spring". Leading the class through this ribbon winner year were Bob Yates, president; Cathy Casteel, vice president; Karen Savage, secretary; and George Pederson, yell leader.

Now the last stanza of their journey through senior high has come to an end. Head footmen were Bob Huber, president; Ted Kerst, vice president; Guy Robertson, secretary; and Jackie Gray, yell leader. On December 12 "Winter Whirl", their year's highlight, was presented at Fruitland Grange. By taking first place in the season ticket drive and the stunt assembly with the presentation of "Ferdinand, the Bull", they proved their rating as a top-rate class.

And now the time has come for their footsteps to follow many paths of life leaving behind them many memories of Puyallup High School and following in their footprints the feet of other classes.

ENTHUSIASTIC JUNIORS PRESENT SPRING PROM

The footing of the juniors, now ready for the senior first floor, has been very enthusiastic throughout the year, entering into many high school activities.

Although they placed fourth in the season ticket drive and their stunt entitled, "Space Ship," they completed a very busy year with the presentation of the Junior Prom in the spring.

SOPHOMORES' FEET CARRY THEM TOWARD THEIR GOAL

Grasping a firm footing, the sophomores came in second in the season ticket drive and third in the stunt with their portrayal of "Ali Puyallup & Forty Thieves."

Displaying the true meaning of their class yell, "We're the class that's got the drive, 1-9-5-5," they sponsored the annual Sophomore Hop in the spring.

STUDENTS STEP INTO NEW ACTIVITIES

Democratic Government Practiced by Students

Stamping season tickets and conducting home room discussion were two of the important jobs of the home room representatives to the Board of Control.

Like any other democratic form of government, Puyallup High School has its own rulemakers, the Board of Control. Elected from their first period classes, Board of Control members attended an early morning session every other Tuesday to discuss problems brought to them by the students of their first period class. Suggestions considered worthwhile were discussed by all members and taken back to their home rooms so all the students could see what the Board had done.

Aside from the usual handling of current school affairs, Board of Control highlights for the year included the establishment of the Pep Club.

For the first time in many years the student body had a girl as president, Catherine Casteel. Assisting Cathy were vice president, Donna Bell; secretary, Shirley Dressel; and Mardell Mannie, Enid Watkin, Carol Worswick, and Donna Bueing, cheer leaders.

Junior High Rule-Makers Govern Baby Vikings

Enjoying the same kind of democratic government as that of the senior high, the junior high Board of Control regulated the actions of the seventh, eighth, and ninth grade students.

Consisting of one representative from each home room the Board gave every junior high student representation, and it gave opportunities to students wishing to have important issues discussed. After ascertaining the views of his home room, the representative went to a board meeting, presented the items requested by his classmates, and voted according to their wishes on all business.

Stamping season tickets and conducting home room discussions were two of the important obligations acquired by the home room representatives to the Board of Control. Each home room report was given on the return of the representatives from the meeting.

Presiding over the junior high Board of Control were Bill Decker, president; Dearld Vesey, vice president; Janet Shaffer, secretary; and Judy Nelson, Judy Raines, and Cathy Watkin, yell leaders.

"Round Up Time" was the theme used for this year's Girls' Club mixer, which was presented to all senior high girls on October 11 in the gymnasium. Decorations were all country style, with refreshments served after the entertainment part of the program.

As each girl went down on the gym floor, she was handed a piece of paper with the name of a farm animal written on it. Each girl was then to find other girls with the same farm animal and sit with that group during the entertainment. In this each girl made a new friend.

Lois Heindselman started off a variety of entertainment by yodeling a few numbers, and a guitar solo by Lynn Andrews was enjoyed by all.

To spread the Christmas spirit was the aim of the cabinet when they decorated the study hall bulletin board with an old-fashioned carriage scene and put fir boughs in the halls.

When this copy was sent to press, it had not yet been disclosed whether the junior and senior Mother-Daughter Tea would be combined. This was the aim and hope of all the girls.

Presiding over the cabinet this year was Maralyn Mannie, president. Serving under her leadership were Judy Starwich, vice president; Hazel Rees, secretary; Ada Decker, historian; and Miss Palma Larson, adviser.

Junior High Girls Promote Friendship

Girls' Club helps every girl in junior high to develop more friendly relations among her school chums. This club starts the ball rolling for effective membership in the senior high Girls' Club. Automatic membership in Girls' Club is received by every girl that enters junior high. She is a member of an active organization from her first day in school. To help her start out in the new environment, the annual after-school mixer was held.

D. Davidson, R. Fly, K. Watkin, S. Newenhof, Mrs. Rentsch.

Advised by Mrs. Emeline Rentsch and headed by president Kathy Watkin, who is assisted by the cabinet, the club had a mixer with Hallowe'en decorations. They put a bulletin board scene up in the halls and Christmas decorations. When this copy went to press it had not yet been decided whether the junior and senior Mother-Daughter Tea would be combined in May. That the junior and senior teas would be combined was the aim and hope of all the girls.

Presiding over the cabinet this year was Kathy Watkin, president. Serving under her leadership were Rosemary Fly, vice president; Sally Newenhof, secretary; and Dorothy Davidson, yell leader. Advising the group was Mrs. Emeline Rentsch.

VANGUARD EDITORS KEEP P.H.S. INFORMED

Providing a Viking Vanguard every two weeks for the student body was a large project for the Vanguard staff this year.

Very few students realize the work involved in getting a story, copyreading it, typing it along with a carbon copy, copyreading it again, and sending it to shop. After a galley has been made it must again be copyread and sent back to shop for corrections. Next the pages must be made-up, and copyread, pictures engraved, headlines written, and finally the distribution of the papers.

First semester editors were: Alice Weatherby, editor; Harriette Hammond, associate editor; Virginia Bonn, news editor; Lyla Hill, assistant news editor; Donna Bueing, feature editor; Jim Parker, Jim Evans, Nancy Hague, sports editors; Viola Raden, business manager; Margo Cochrum, ad manager; Lyla Hill, circulation; and Barbara Tyler, Ilah Jackson, exchange editors.

New editors for the second semester were: Virginia Bonn, editor; Alice Weatherby, associate editor; Marilyn Lince, Lyla Hill, news editors; Jim Parker, Jim Evans, Nancy Hague, sports editors; Ilah Jackson, Barbara Tyler, feature editors; and Beverly Waughtel, Karleen Kohl, exchange managers.

Mr. Harold Snodgrass was the adviser of the Vanguard with Miss Gladys Sorenson as art adviser.

ANNUAL STAFF FIGHTS DEADLINES

Finding an unusual cover, a unique theme, choosing who was to work on what section, writing "different" and new copy, taking pictures, and meeting deadlines were only a few of the many problems which the annual staff runs into every year, with this year being no exception.

The 1953 publication of the Viking was edited by Delaine Olson and Geneva Sherman, co-editors, with Mythol Hildreth, business, taking care of the money and advertising matters. Mr. Harold Snodgrass was the new annual adviser this year.

Heading the senior section was Ada Decker with assistance from Donna Bell, Shirley Henke, and Mary Anne Blilie. It was their job to make the senior section layouts, get the seniors' activity lists and type them, and paste the senior pictures in their section. Corice Hardman headed the activity section with help from Peggy Tompkins, Alice Weatherby, Myrna Baker, Marilyn Lince, and Valerie Newton.

John Shannon, Jim Carlisle, and Greta Johnson handled the sports section, while Lyla Hill had charge of the faculty section and Judy Marker took care of the classes. Marlene Buess was responsible for the dummy. Photographers were Bob Annon, Sam Lipoma, Ray Goodale, and Connie Grunder.

Each section editor was responsible for seeing that the pages were made up, the copy was written, and that proper picture identifications were made.

This is the second year that the journalism students have presented a radio program to the people of the valley telling them the latest high school news. The news heard was taken from stories written for the Viking Vanguard. The program was presented on Wednesday at 4:30.

Heading the radio program was Arlene Baker who was the radio news editor. Her assistants were Delano Dudacek, Geneva Sherman, and Norene Grace. Mr. Harold Snodgrass was adviser of the program, giving his assistance whenever it was needed. In early February the radio staff visited radio broadcasting classes at Olympia High School.

High school photographers taking pictures for both the annual and the Viking Vanguard this year were Connie Grunder, Bob Annon, Ray Goodale, and Sam Lipoma.

Quill and Scroll, a journalism honorary, has once again become an active organization around P.H.S. Officers for the past year were: Jim Parker, president; Virginia Bonn, vice president; and Marilyn Lince, secretary. To attain membership it is necessary to have 100 inches in print and a "B" average. Second year members were: Carolyn Todd, Peggy Tompkins, Maralyn Mannie, and Harriette Hammond.

For the past twenty-seven years the Viking Ladies and Viking Knights have been seen throughout the school in their traditional blue and white sweaters. In whatever they are doing they always strive to be friendly and courteous to the public.

VIKING LADIES, KNIGHTS BOOST COURTESY, SERVICE

To become a Viking Lady or Knight is considered a high honor around P.H.S. The membership of the two groups is limited to fourteen Viking Ladies and twelve Viking Knights. Two members are selected from each senior high class by election each year and retain their membership as long as they are in high school. Girls' Club president and G.A.A. sports manager automatically become Viking Ladies.

Viking Lady officers were: president, Judy Starwich; vice president, Dorothy Peterson; and secretary, Nancy Bell.

LINGUISTIC SOCIETIES BOAST OF ACTIVE YEAR

Meeting in room 200 to take care of their business for the year was the Spanish Club. This year the club was led by Nancy Arthur, president; Wally Lord, vice president; Mary Bradley, secretary-treasurer; and Val Foubert, adviser.

As did the Latineers, the Spanish Club sang their verses of Christmas songs in the halls on December 18. At a pep assembly they presented a stunt in which comical gifts were given out to characters representing the basketball team. They also gave a regular assembly using as their motif a night club in Mexico City (El Sombrero).

For their last event, the club had a party in the spring.

Beginning the year with their annual initiation of new members, the Latineers led a very eventful year.

In the fall a cake sale was held and at Christmas the Latin verses of the Holy day songs could be heard throughout the halls by these active members. As their last function of the year, a Roman banquet was held.

President Ada Decker was assisted by George Pederson as vice president, and Greta Johnson as secretary-treasurer. Frieda Scheitlin acted as adviser.

F.H.A. AND D.E. CLUBS SELL HOT DOGS, VI-BELLS

With Darlene Pugh wielding the gavel as president, Beverly Waughtel as vice president, Rose Marie Greeley as secretary, Donna Kremer as treasurer, Gloria Hess and Karlene Kohl as point chairmen, Helen Alexander and Doris Beech as advisers, the Future Homemakers of America began a very active year.

Some of their projects were selling hot dogs at the football games, sponsoring the Junior Red Cross Drive in school, and entertaining patients at Madigan Hospital.

Chosen to represent Puyallup at the Washington Retailers' convention at Olympia was Paul Hawkins, president of the local group.

The club visited other schools, made and sold "Vi" bells, judged store windows at Christmas time, and attended a convention at Longview.

Assisting Paul were: Linda Tredway, vice president; Bertha Stonebraker, secretary; Lucille Miller, treasurer; Hilda Skreen, adviser. The group had three standing committees: social, display, and ways and means.

FFA BOYS DEVELOP JUDGING SKILLS

During the summer of 1952 the Puyallup chapter of Future Farmers of America was rated a Silver Emblem chapter, which was one of six in the state. They were working toward a Gold Emblem this year, a goal only four of the 140 chapters in the state attained in 1952.

The officers included president, Jim Wilson; vice president, Bob Zeller; secretary, Steve Smith; treasurer, Lee Sandberg; and reporter, Ray Barth.

Preparation for the Western Washington Fair continued through the summer and six members showed beef. The horticultural display erected by the boys was judged the Grand Champion.

The Washington Junior Poultry Show at Seattle in October showed six members exhibiting entries. The Poultry Judging team also entered contests at the Western Washington Fair. The Stock Judging team competed at various places.

ACTIVE MEMBERS COMPLETE SUCCESSFUL YEAR

In February, parliamentary procedure was the main interest and Puyallup had a contest between classes in order to select the members for the chapter team. The sub-district contest was held February 28 at Puyallup with schools from Thurston, Pierce, Kitsap, and Clallam counties participating.

On March 19, the annual Parent and Son Banquet was the important project. This affair is considered the highlight of the year by many of the parents because both Mom and Dad come to the banquet as guests of their son.

Bob Zeller won the $100 Carl Raymond Gray Scholarship sponsored by the Union Pacific Railroad. Steve Smith was named alternate.

YOUTH COUNCIL GOVERNS 'REC' AND 'Y' CLUBS

To coordinate the activities of the clubs with the Y.M.C.A. is the purpose of the Youth Council. To do this, the members of the Council set up the constitution, the principles and the standards that govern the Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y clubs.

The Council also plans and encourages projects that will involve all the clubs, such as the Easter services, World Service and any others the members of the Council decide upon. The Council is also responsible for setting up the rules and standards that govern the Recreation center. It is their duty to take care of the disciplinary problems at the Rec and to decide upon special Rec dances held by the various Tri-Hi-Y's and Hi-Y's. Also under their responsibility is the money from the senior Rec dances when they are not sponsored by any of the clubs. It is the duty of the Council to spend this money where they see fit. Projects that the Council have used this money to buy were the P.A. system for the building of the Y.M.C.A., and giving scholarships to one girl and one boy each year.

The Youth Council is made up of the officers of the Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y clubs and is led by Judy Marker as president. She is assisted by Richard Hammermaster as vice president; and John Gorow as secretary. Roy E. and Phyllis Richstad, local Y.M.C.A. secretaries, supervised all club activities.

BAND MAKES VITAL CONTRIBUTION TO SCHOOL SPIRIT

Tramp! Tramp! Tramp! can be heard as the band marches around the school. Many hours of practice are required to perform at games and parades. The band then marches around the school and at Viking Field. Some of the things the band has done are playing for the midwinter concert and the annual spring concert. They also played over Campus Radio Theater. The band accompanied Mr. Arthur Doll, who was the guest artist, at the Swing Concert.

The band raised money this year by selling nuts before Thanksgiving. This money was used to take the band on a trip as guest performers. Another big event was the band contest for the Puget Sound Area which was held at Renton in April.

Joan Richards and Winston Vitious were chosen to play in the all Northwest band. They went to Bellingham for this festival. As the final appearance of the year, the band marched in the Daffodil Parade. Thus the band has marched through another successful year.

ORCHESTRA MEMBERS ARE SCHOOL CONCERT MASTERS

Under the direction of Mr. Krenz, the orchestra has completed a very successful year. The orchestra played at the Mid-Winter Concert and at the annual swing concert; they also played over KMO on Campus Radio Theater.

The orchestra had two members who were chosen to play in the Northwest Musical Festival held at Bellingham. They were Loïs Hess, violin, and Ann McMillan, french horn. The climax of the year was at the Music Contest for the Puget Sound Area which was held at Bremerton in April.

So with the tapping of feet as they keep time with the music, the orchestra now disappears till next year.

Music Makers Furnish Musical Side-Lights

The Brass Sextet was chosen to appear at the convention in Bellingham. They gave two 15-minute performances to supply music for some of the many meetings in connection with the convention and were well received. They also played in the ensemble contest.

This was the fourth year with the same personnel for the Clarinet Quartet. They started as a junior high group. This year they rehearsed twice a week and played in the ensemble contest, where they received a high rating.

Under the direction of Louis Owens the A Cappella Choir and the Girls' Glee Club gave many successful performances.

The Choir sang in the Christmas program, the Spring Concert, the Easter Sunrise service, Baccalaureate, and the annual Easter and Christmas assemblies. They also sang for Campus Radio Theater.

This year the Fred Waring arrangement of "The Night Before Christmas" was featured in the Christmas program and both the Glee Club and Choir took part.

The Girls' Glee Club participated in the annual "Viking Varieties" production. They also sang for the Spring Concert and Commencement.

This year the Choir and the Girls' Glee Club went to Bremerton in April for the contest of the Puget Sound Area.

Back Row: J. Beck, C. Troupe, D. Hartshorn, J. McKay, L. Criss, B. Markholt.

VERSATILE PERFORMERS PRODUCE ENTERTAINMENT

The Nonette and Sextet were two of the busiest groups in school. Throughout the year they have sung for various club meetings around Puyallup. They sang for the Alumni Assembly, and they had many of the leading roles in Viking Varieties. They gave many other successful performances during the year.

The chairmen and their committees worked long and hard on the Viking Varieties script. The committee headed by Geneva Sherman worked on the first act. Leila Dildine and her committee worked on the South American act. Delaine Olson and her committee wrote the Vienna scene. Shirley Dickison and her committee wrote Siam and Harriette Hammond with her committee wrote the Broadway number.

The Junior High Majorettes have made several performances. They marched with the Junior High Band in the Daffodil Parade.

JUNIOR MUSICIANS MAKE MANY APPEARANCES

Everyone likes a band, and that includes the junior band, which is under the direction of Miss Frances Stoeckert. Highlights for the band this year were playing at junior high pep assemblies and games, entering the band contest in March, playing at an assembly in the spring, and marching in the Daffodil Parade. Including the seventh graders, it was a sixty-seven piece band.

Besides practicing every day during second period in room 313, this year the Junior High Orchestra played in the contest and at an assembly. There are thirty-one string players in the orchestra, and these are assisted by a few brass and woodwind players from the band. The strings included six cellos, and fourteen violin players from the seventh grade who played with the orchestra.

JUNIOR HIGH SONGSTERS ARE UP AND COMING

The Junior High Chorus has sixty members. These young voices are the making of future Nonette, Sextet, and Viking Varieties stars. The Junior High Chorus class are taught the fundamentals of music such as reading music and expression signs. They also learn music appreciation. They were seen in the Spring Concert. Some of the songs they worked on during the year were "Bless This House" and "Rest My Shoes." Mr. Louis Owens has done an excellent job with this group.

The Junior High Girls' Glee Club, a group of fifty members has sung such selections as "Rise Up Early in the Morning" and "In Bethlehem." These young vocalists were seen in the Christmas program and in the Spring Concert.

TICKET COMMITTEE

Three girls are needed to sell tickets at the school games, plays, concerts, shows, or any school function that requires paid admission. These girls are usually chosen from office training classes. The committee members were selected by their supervisor, Mr. Robert Vollen, who said, "Ticket selling is good experience.

TICKET SELLING COMMITTEE

VIKING PATROL

Most of the students who ride bicycles to school are, no doubt, acquainted with the members of the Viking Patrol. These boys have the job of seeing that rules concerning the riding of bicycles, good conduct in the junior high halls, and in the auditorium are carried out by all students. Eldon Angelo was the boys' adviser. The Patrol elected Jerry Williams as captain, and Ronald Jonas as secretary.

SMOKING COMMITTEE

Student participation in the making of principles affecting the school is evident in the functioning of the Smoking Committee. The committee consists of boys from every senior high class. It is their duty to catch students violating the rules. Those students who do violate the rules are required to sign a pledge of obedience. This year's officers were Bob Dall, president; Ray Barth, vice president; Dick Daugherty, secretary; and James Turman, adviser.

SMOKING COMMITTEE

OFFICE GIRLS

Helping out the regular high school office secretaries were the office girls, senior high girls who gave up a study period to assist the secretaries. They were on duty each period of the day, recording attendance slips, running the school switchboard, typing and making out tardy slips.

OFFICE ASSISTANTS

STUDENTS FIND HELP WITH HOMEWORK IN LIBRARY

In addition to their routine work in checking books, the senior high librarians helped to prepare the new books for distribution. They also answered the phone, checked roll, and aided students in finding reference material. Many up-to-date books were added to the shelves, making the library a source of enjoyment for everyone. In the fall the librarians had a tea to acquaint the teachers with the new books.

Last fall they had a picnic at Hi-Dive for all the old librarians and the new ones. In the course of events they presented Miss Florence Pfefferle, faculty librarian, a corsage.

During the past year the junior high librarians have been very busy putting displays on the bulletin boards in the junior high study hall, helping in the preparation of new books, mending the old ones, keeping up the authors' scrapbook, and answering the phone. There were either two or three girls on duty each period of the day.

These girls are selected each spring by the eighth grade teachers. Qualifications are: A grade average not lower than "C," dependability, courteousness, and pleasantness.

During the last week of school the new librarians were given a week's training period to acquaint them with the work.

JUNIOR HIGH LIBRARIANS

Seated: D. Gulbranson, A. Johnson, J. Bath, G. Cantrell, D. Miller. Standing: Miss Watson, T. Porter, D. Green, K. McMillan, M. Inman, B. Barnes, C. Schroetlin, N. Fogle, C. Beckstad.

STAGE CREW

Made up of seventeen boys, the stage crew had fun as well as work. During the last part of the year they again started their tumbling team.

This year as a new project, the stage crew painted an "out of this world" scene on the old fire curtain. The scenery and setting for Viking Varieties and all other stage productions were designed by a very capable crew under the direction of Mr. Mark Hipkins.

Mr. Hipkins said, "The boys had a high spirit of work and co-operation. They were eager to put forth their best effort as they never before have."

Row One: V. DeChaux, D. Jackson, Mr. Hipkins, K. Erck, F. Luckow. Row Two: J. Akers, R. Nameniuk, N. Goodell, G. Dinwiddie.

PROJECTION CREW

If you are one of those more ambitious people who get to school about 8:30 in the morning, you have probably seen a group of boys carrying moving picture apparatus into a room where the picture was to be shown. Some of this equipment weighs a hundred pounds and sometimes has to be carried from as far as first floor to the balcony. Besides showing pictures, the members also splice films, and make wire and record recordings.

MUSEUM STAFF

The story of the Oregon Trail, items of biological interest, shell specimens from all over the world, a moose head, and Indian relics can be found only in one place in the school: The Paul Karshner Memorial Museum. Material for study for every class appears there, and many teachers bring their students to the Museum to observe and learn.

Dr. and Mrs. Karshner established this museum in memory of their son, Paul, who died when he was a senior.

There are 62 cases of specimens and 9 cases of book files. Most of the specimens in these cases have been donated by Dr. and Mrs. Karshner and several students of this school.

MUSEUM

Richard Sandberg, Mrs. Grunder.

PROPERTY COMMITTEE

Undoubtedly many of the students of P.H.S. have been approached by a person who asked to borrow a lamp, a chair, or some other piece of furniture for use in one of the school plays or Viking Varieties. Obviously this person was a member of the properties committee. These students have a hard time locating furniture for the many plays put on at school and live in constant fear that pieces of the borrowed furniture will be broken. With the help of their advisers, Leonard Docherty and Joe Casey and the chairmen of each play, they have accomplished a great amount of work and have contributed to the success of the productions.

PROPERTY COMMITTEE

Row One: M. Dracobly, M. Mannie, M. Thompson, J. Pierson. Row Two: M. Williams, C. Hanlin, N. Iverson, E. Sjoden.

PUBLICITY COMMITTEE

Before every play you see big posters in store windows, signs on the bumpers of cars, and advertisements in the newspapers. All this and more was taken care of by the publicity committee with Miss Elizabeth Buss as adviser. This year there were thirty-five people taking the responsibility of getting people's attention.

Assistant adviser was Mr. Val Jean Foubert, who took over the advertising for Viking Varieties.

PUBLICITY COMMITTEE

MAKE-UP COMMITTEE

Playing an important part in P.H.S. stage productions is the Make-up Club. When the time comes for handing out compliments and credits, the students who make possible the fact of the person portrayed are often forgotten. At the beginning of the year the old members of the club acted as "dummies" for the new students to practice on.

Before each stage performance, members of the club are assigned certain actors to make-up and much time and study is devoted to figuring out a plan for making the face characterized the person being portrayed.

Peggy Tompkins served as committee chairman this year, with Miss Gertrude Hansen serving as adviser.

SENIORS HAVE A 'DATE WITH JUDY'

The senior-sponsored all-school play "A Date With Judy," played to a capacity audience on the night of November 21. A matinee was presented November 20 for many of the junior high students.

Judy Higgins had the lead of the play as Judy Foster, and Joan Dennis was Judy's best friend, Barbara Winsocket. Between the two of them, they were always cooking up wild schemes and ending in trouble.

Judy's younger brother, Randolph, was played by Bob Daily and added much to the play with his witty remarks and sayings.

The rest of the cast was as follows: Arlene Baker, Mrs. Foster; Jack Beck, Mr. Foster; Roger Wolf, Oogie Pringle; Delores Perry, Mitzi Hoffman; Loren Carlton, Mr. Martindale; Janet Turman, Mrs. Schultzhammer; Frances Schakohl, Mrs. Hotchkiss; Betty Schakohl, Eloise; Nancy Kienast, Hannah; David Hartshorn, Rex O'Connor; and Carol Hurst, Susie.

Mr. Robert Wolf was the director, with George Pederson acting as student director.

JUNIORS PRESENT DRUMS OF DEATH

A well chosen cast of students presented a spine-tingling mystery "Drums of Death." The junior class sponsored play, led by drama coach, Mr. Robert Wolf, and student director, Delores Perry, was presented on April 16 and 17.

Arlene Baker was cast as Celeste, an octoroon servant, who, while in her trances, revealed future events. Orlyn Peterson was cast in the role of Sheldon Harley, a man in charge of the Bailey mansion. Roger Ufkes portrayed Jules, a Haitian Negro servant. Beverly Carrier played the part of Mrs. Oakley, the housekeeper in the Bailey mansion. Rose Marie Greeley interpreted the role of the sharp tongued matron, Mrs. Gilette. Eileen Sjoden was Eugenia Bowles, a "gushy" woman who added much humor throughout the play. Shari Hartman gave an amusing portrayal of Amelia Gilette, a boisterous but attractive young girl. Loren Carlton portrayed a well-to-do medical specialist. Nancy Arthur was Paula Bailey, an attractive visitor to the Bailey mansion.

L to R.: G. Pederson, L. Carlton, S. Hartman, E. Sjoden, R. Greeley.

The annual Viking Varieties was staged in the auditorium March 19, 20, and 21. This year's extravaganza featured a space ship that went all over the world and even went into time. It began at a Spaceport in Anywhere, U. S. A. The flight first landed in Brazil. Featured in this act were an Argentine tango, and rumba and samba dances. Portraits coming to life, a Viennese waltz, and music typified the Vienna scene. The space ship next ventured to Siam, 1880. This scene consisted of tumbling, music, and authentic Siamese dances. Finally, the space ship came back to the Airport and "good old U. S. A."

JET-PROPELLED VARIETIES

From top, left to right: "There's gonna be a Great Day," stewardesses and company. Mackay and Keogan find it takes two to tango. Mechanic Beck and Boys' Glee Club "Sound Off". Hildabrande sings about "A Heart That's Free," Dildine. Fraulein Wilhelmina and Prince Johann of Bavaria. Peterson, Beck. Finally the Finale. Director Owens.

In between acts were a short play, "Mortgage or Marriage," by Mr. Wolf's drama classes; "Ballet Moose?" by five "very graceful" boys; and a piano duet "Begin the Beguine" by Mr. Louis Owens and Pat Schwartze.

The entire show was written by students in Mr. Louis Owens classes. Leila Dildine, Delaine Olson, Harriette Hammond, Geneva Sherman, and Shirley Dickison were the head script writers. Members of the nonette and septet were featured.

Mr. Owens was the director of the show, with Mrs. Joan Kern as dance instructor. Other committees working on the Varieties were the stage-crew, the make-up committee, the publicity committee, the property committee, and the costume committee.

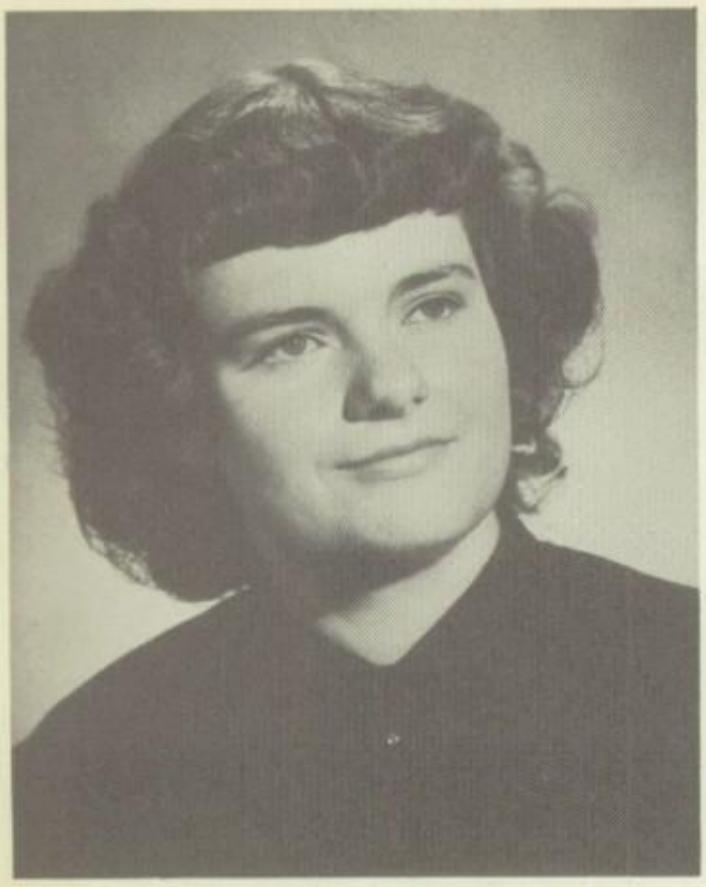
SUCCESSFUL SENIORS DEPART INTO WORLD OF OPPORTUNITY

DISTINGUISHED STUDENTS TOP SCHOLASTIC LADDER



Valedictorian

Topping the scholastic ladder was Corice Hardman, valedictorian, with a grade point average of 96.15. While here at Puyallup she participated in girls' sports, girls' glee club, Quill and Scroll, and Nurses Club. She also was activities editor of the annual and a Student of the Month. Her job as a lab assistant at the Puyallup Hospital will serve as preparation for her career as a nurse. She plans to go into training at St. Joseph's Hospital in Tacoma next fall.

Salutatorian

Carolyn Todd, salutatorian, stepped into second place scholastically with a 96.00 grade average. She was very active in extra-curricular activities during her high school days. She took part in Honor Society, Latineers, Torch Tri Hi-Y, Viking Vanguard, class activities, Quill and Scroll, and girls' sports. Next year will find Carolyn at the Central Washington College of Education in Ellensburg majoring in education.

This year the Honor Society voted to be an active organization. Among their activities were sponsoring an after school sock dance, "The Shoeless Shuffle"; ordering pins; drawing up a new constitution; and obtaining membership cards.

To be eligible for membership a student must have at least a "B" average plus two or more activities. Leading Honor Society activities this year were Judy Starwich, president; Bob Huber, vice president; Lois Hess, secretary-treasurer; and Miss Helen Alexander, adviser.

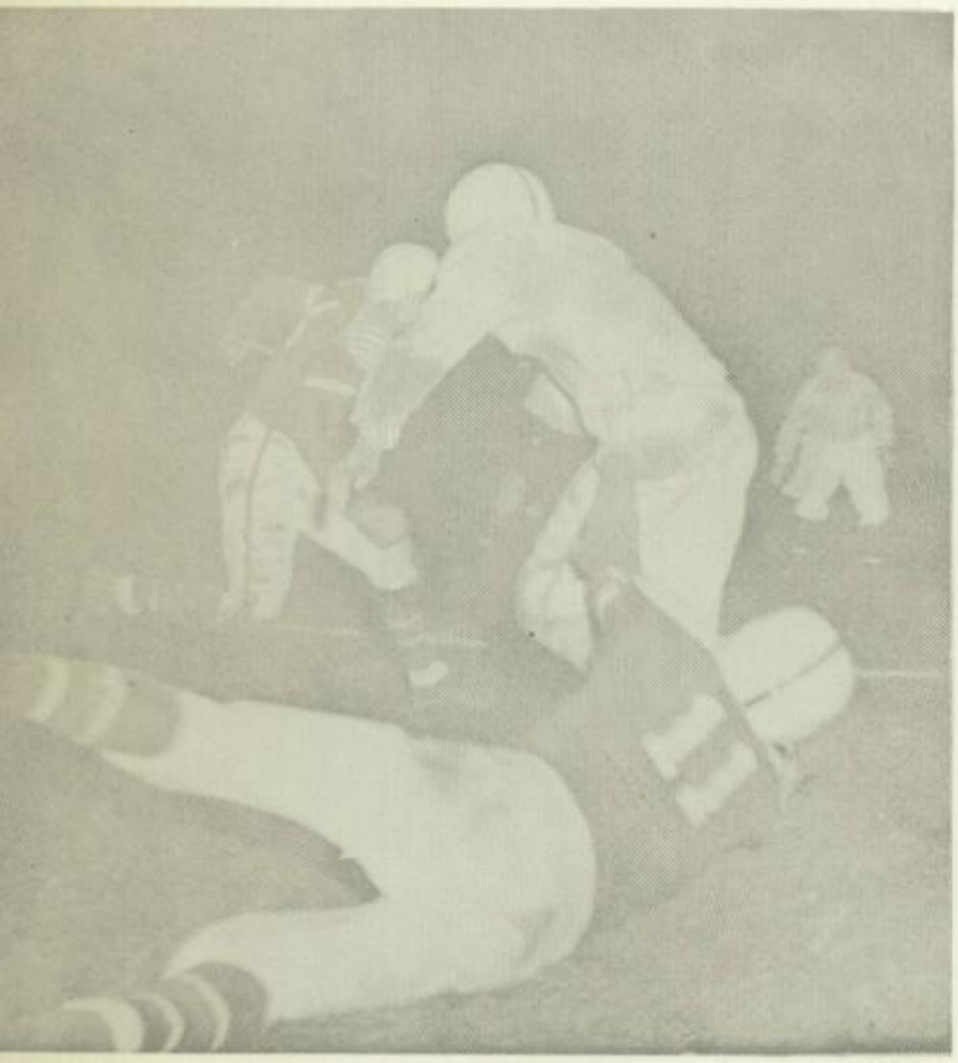
VIKING GRID-MEN FINISH ROUGH BUT SUCCESSFUL



Tackle him, Vikings!

Out of the nine games played, Puyallup's Varsity Football team of 1952-1953, won five games, lost four, and tied none. Two games were lost by only one point to very strong teams.

The captain of this year's team was Richard Hammermaster, who was the unanimous choice for all-conference center in the Puget Sound league. Cliff Webster, Keith Peterson, Ed Krummel, and John Gorow, were chosen for second team all-conference, and Conrad Anderson and Bob Dall received honorable mention.

The team began its season by losing to White River, 14-13, in the first game, and to Clover Park, 18-14, in the second game. When they played South Kitsap, however, they beat South Kitsap, 7-6. South Kitsap was one of the non-league games played, and Bremerton was another. The Vikings lost to Bremerton, 26-0, in a game in which the grandstands were practically empty on the Viks' own home field. After this game, the team and spectators were given a pep talk, and at the next game with Kent there was a large cheering section for the Viks as they beat Kent, 19-0. Then the Vikings beat Auburn, 14-6, and won also the Renton game beating Renton, 13-6. Playing Highline next, they lost to Highline, 7-6, in a very heated game. The grandstand was filled for this game, also.

SEASON; TAKE THIRD PLACE IN CONFERENCE

Long rivalry struck once more, as the Viks invaded Sumner in the annual Thanksgiving Day game, beating Sumner, 26-7. In this game, Conrad Anderson made the first touchdown, and made the last, also, which occurred in the last few minutes of the game. The Puyallup section was filled to capacity once more, not only with students, but also many adults.

In the letter assembly, it was revealed that Roy "Fuzz" Elliott would be next year's captain, and that Lee Sandberg was chosen by his team members as the inspirational Award winner. Rod Olson was the only Sophomore who received a letter.

The Puyallup team will lose many valuable players this year, many being second or third year letter award winners. Those graduating are: Jim Dixon, Conrad Anderson, Conrad Shipman, Chuck Rose, Bob Dall, Harvey Faker, Jim Parker, Denny Elvins, Dick Traxler, Cliff Webster, Keith Peterson, Ed Krummel, Lee Sandberg, Dick Hammermaster, and John Gorow. The managers who are also graduating are Bob Yates and Clayton Sparks.

Our final conference standing was third place, and high scoring honors were given to Ed Krummel, as he made ten out of sixteen points after touchdown. The season scoring record of the team was 113 points to their opponents 89. Carl Sparks and Dean Nicholson, coaches of the Viks, both agreed that it was a very good season.

B-SQUAD BUILDS RESERVE STRENGTH FOR FUTURE

With the season completed and a final check, it was found that Puyallup's B Squad had won two games, tied one, and had lost five.

The team, coached by Carl Wasmund and Al Jacobs, began its season by defeating the Sumner team, 32-0, with Gail Palmquist making the first touchdown of the season. After the Sumner game, the team in high spirits hit Stadium with all thirty-five players and tied Stadium, 6-6. Still in high hopes, they jumped to beat Clover Park, but lost, 13-0, to a very strong team in the league. Feeling slightly depressed, but still very lively, the team played Kent, losing, 13-7. In the next game, Franklin-Pierce defeated them, 6-0. Now, feeling fairly low, they lost to Clover Park again, 26-0, and again to Stadium, also, 27-7. With a week off, and hard practice, which was well worth it, the team defeated their arch-enemy, Sumner, 25-0, in the final game of the season.

Despite the many games lost, the season scoring record was 77 points compared to their opponents' 90 points.

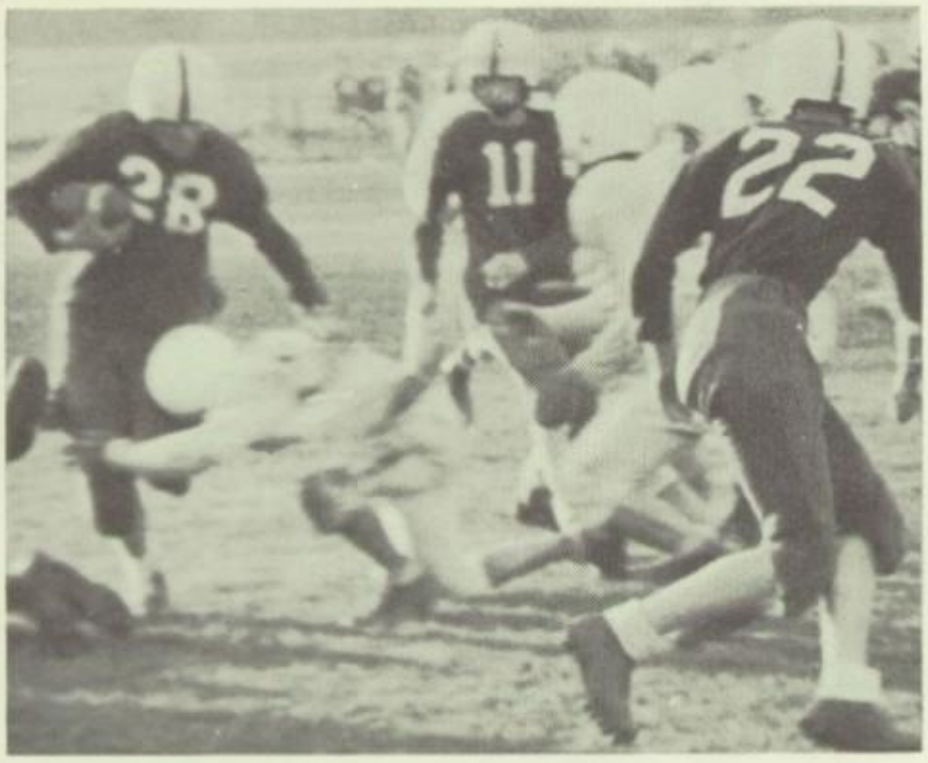
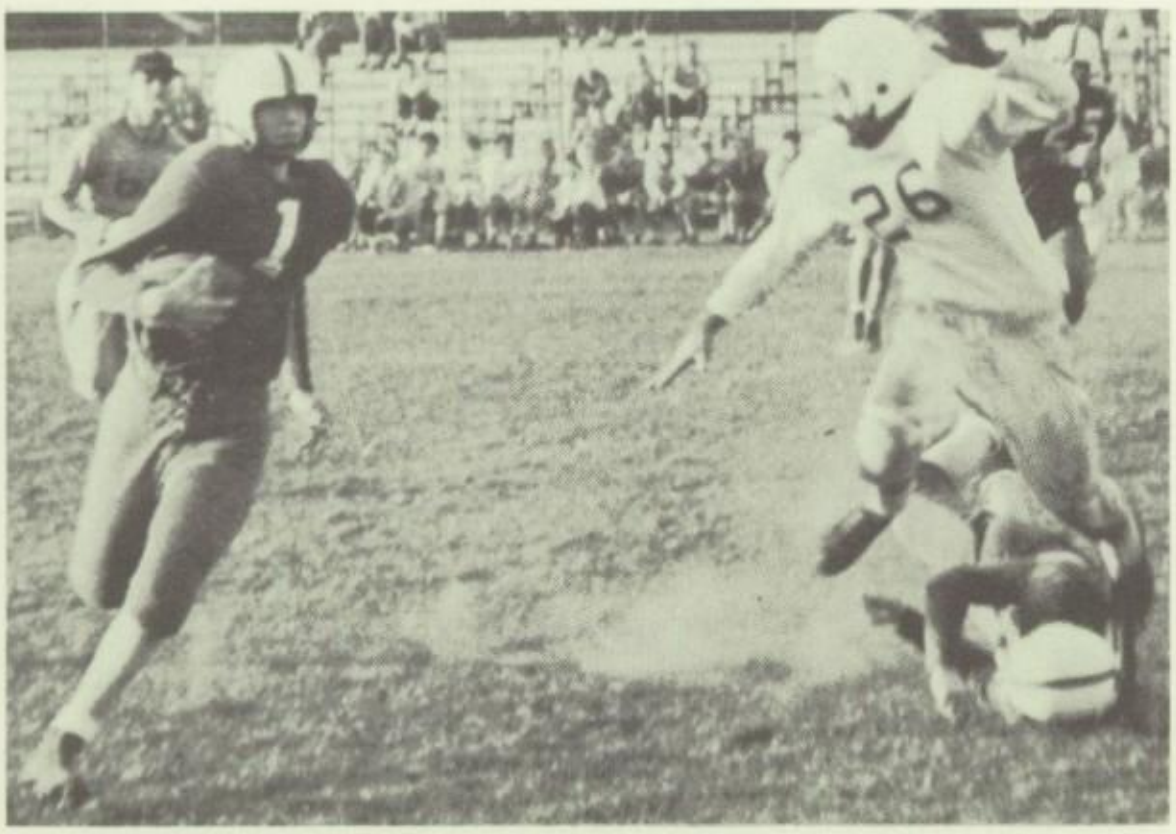
BABY VIKS COP SOUTH END CHAMPIONSHIP



Hit 'em low, boys.

The Puyallup Baby Vikings had a very good season this year. Out of the six games played, three games were won, one was tied, and two were lost. Although the team began its season by losing to the Stewart Junior High gridders, 6-0, they kept up their spirits, being helped by coaches Turman and Lee. In their second game, they came through with a bang as they played Auburn and won a 13-0 victory over Auburn. As they still felt in high spirits when they tackled White River, they won again, beating White River, 19-7. Then the Baby Vikings hit their old rival, Sumner, and since both teams were very strong, neither were able to score a point. This was the only tie for the Baby Vikings. It didn't seem to bother them, for when they played against Clover Park, they beat Clover Park, 18-0, giving themselves the title of the South End champions. The Vikings then completed their season by playing the League Championship game against the North End champions, Renton, at Renton. Even with high feelings, they lost, 18-0, to a very good team.

With the season completed, most of the thirty-five team members agreed that it was a successful season.



And there he goes!

DRILL TEAM, PEPSTERS WORK FOR SPIRIT

"Mark time!" "Forward march!" These words resounded throughout the school when the drill team practiced in the gym. Miss Lorraine Flower was instructor. Showing their ability, the team performed at one football game, two basketball games and the Daffodil parade. Phyllis Walter was drill leader and Greta Johnson manager.

This year the school's songs were led by the Pepsters, Nancy Arthur, Sheila McClane, Betty Schakohl, and Roberta Simonson. Their pep and vitality sparked the football and basketball games and pep asesmblies. Came rain, sleet or snow, the pepsters were always there to push the Puyallup spirits up.

YELL-LEADERS LEAD FANS IN SUPPORT OF TEAMS

A jiving jumping quartet of yell leaders captured the hearts of Puyallup fans this year and led them through several new yells as well as the old favorites — "two bits, four bits," "the locomotive," and "fight, team, fight!" For the first time in several years, there were no boys on the yell staff and four girls, Yell Queen Enid Watkin, and Yell Duchesses Carol Worswick, Donna Bueing and Mardell Mannie led the Viking cheers through victory and defeat.

CHAMPIONS FOR CONFERENCE TITLE

Coaches Dean Nicholson and Jim Turman led the 1953 Viking Basketball Squad to a very successful season this year by winning fourteen league games and losing two. Puyallup also played seven non-league games of which the team won four and lost three.

The Viks tied Renton for first place in the Puget Sound League. To see which team would go to the State Tournament in Seattle, the Puget Sound league was entered in the West Central district Class A basketball tournament. Puyallup won their first game with Mount Si, but lost the second game with Renton. This placed Renton in the state tournament.

In the annual letter assembly, honorary captain, Erle Tallman accepted the co-championship trophy presented by head coach Carl Sparks. John Gorow was chosen by the team as the Inspirational Award winner.

In league games, the total score was 719 for Puyallup and 576 for the Vik's opponents. So closed a successful season.

JUNIORS TAKE INTER-CLASS HONORS

Once again the basketball opportunities available in Puyallup High are featured. The B squad received the title of champions of the Puget Sound League. Sam Lipoma led his intramural team to the championship, and the junior class won in the inter class league.

JUNIOR HIGH BASKETEERS TAKE THIRD PLACE

The eleven members of the Puyallup Junior High basketball team made their bid for next year's sophomore squad with four games won and four games lost. Their average score per game was about 28 points, and they took third place in the league. Ron Crowe and Mike Cline were high point men.

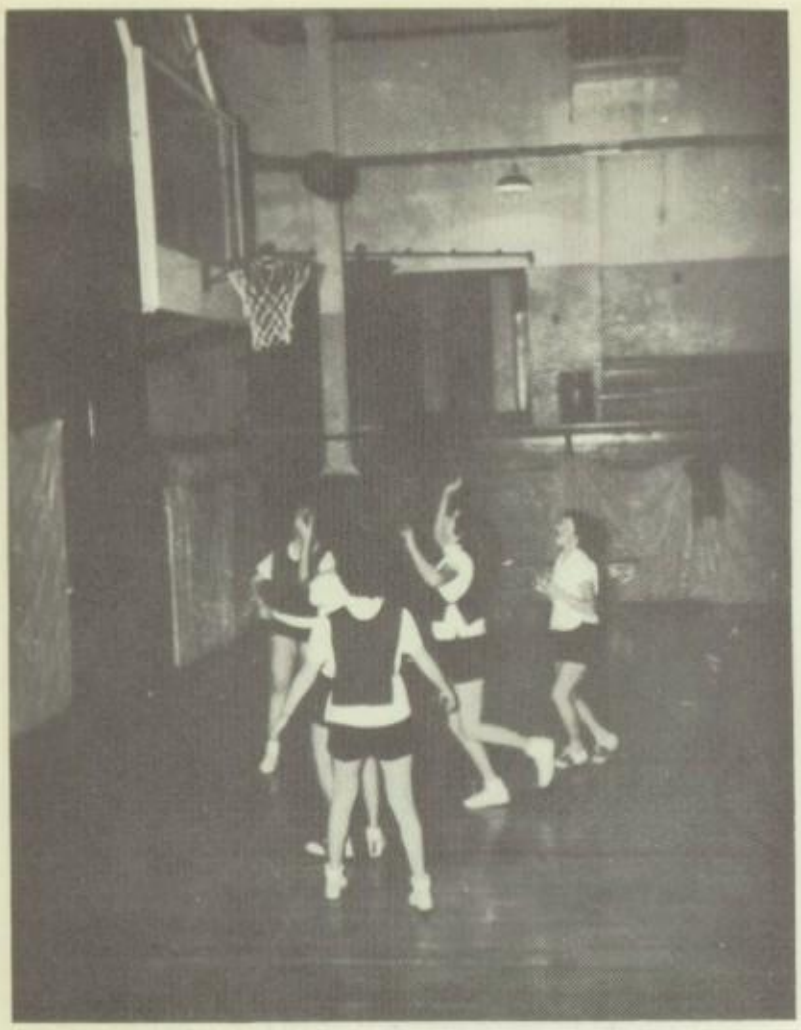
P. E. CLASSES JOIN IN MANY ACTIVITIES



Because our school lacks gym facilities, the ninth grade is the only class that is offered physical education. This year as in other years the boys and girls have used the gym for alternate two week periods. During the other weeks the students have attended health classes.

Some of the sports the girls take part in are volley ball, basketball, tennis, badminton, dancing, ping pong, and softball. The boys take part in these sports: wrestling, boxing, hardball, basketball and others. Both the boys and the girls are taught both folk dancing and ballroom dancing.

PEP CLUB ORGANIZES FOOTBALL RALLY, PARADE

Puyallup's golf team, composed of eight players, was coached by Harold Simonson, and captained by Guy Robertson. They lost their first two matches with Stadium and Clover Park, but won the next two against Kent and Auburn. Several more matches had been scheduled but because of deadlines could not be included in this book.

Again, Puyallup heard the cry of "more pep" as the Pep Club took a stand once more. Although in the past the club has had many difficulties, it organized a good football rally as President Ray Barth led a parade to Sumner on Thanksgiving day. The parade included a pep band and a string of cars more than a mile long. The club also organized a cheering section at many of the basketball games and supplied the gym with peppy posters.

DIAMONDMEN STRUGGLE WITH SCHEDULE

Another one of Puyallup's four spring sports is baseball. This year's teams are composed mostly of sophomores and juniors with only three seniors, Ed Krummel, Dick Turner, and Conrad Anderson, turning out. In view of this fact we will have an abundance of material for future years. Conrad Anderson served as team captain this season.

At the time that this book was printed, our A squad had lost games to Stadium and Lincoln in non-league play and to Renton and Sumner in league play. Our B squad diamond men had won over Stadium, but lost to Lincoln, Franklin Pierce, and Clover Park.

VIKING NETTERS HAVE 3-2 RECORD

When the annual went to press this year, the tennis team had played five games. They had won over Lincoln, 3-0, outscored Auburn, 3-2, and beaten Sumner, 4-1. The team was beaten by Highline in their first game by a score of 5-0 and defeated by White River, 5-0. Two more league games were scheduled for the season.

On this year's Puyallup squad were three outgoing seniors, five juniors, and four sophomores. The team was coached by Mr. Robert Vollen.

G.A.A. TEACHES GIRLS GOOD SPORTMANSHIP

The sophomore, junior and senior high girls' have an opportunity for physical education activities in Girls' Athletic Association. This club is open to all senior high girls. The group is advised by Miss Lorraine Flower, and is under the leadership of Greta Johnson, president; Nancy Hague, vice-president; Barbara Brewer, secretary, and Barbara Williams, sports manager.

One of the main purposes of the club is to teach good sportsmanship. The girls receive points for participating in various sports. They receive 100 points for volleyball, basketball, ping-pong, 50 points for bike-rides, horseback riding, swimming and skiing, and 25 points are given for medical or dental checkups.

The highest award is the Gold Victory Medal for which a girl must have 2400 points. The Silver Victory is the second highest award and may be won with 2100 points. It is necessary to earn 550 points for a letter or a chevron.

HARSHMAN RETURNS TO COACH CINDERMEN

With the return of Coach Sterling Harshman to the faculty in January the Puyallup thinclads began a new regime. Former Coach Carl Sparks was enabled to give more attention to his duties as athletic coordinator. Juniors and sophomores dominated the squad this year, only four seniors participating in the events. It was Coach Harshman's hope that by building the squad this year, a strong, experienced group would be ready for competition in 1954.

As this book went to press, Puyallup had won one meet against Fife, and placed second in triangular meets with Renton and Sumner, and with Auburn and Issaquah. Other meets run off were with Clover Park, Kent-Meridian, Highline and White River, and a four-way meet with Stadium, Sumner and Fife. Puyallup placed fourth in the South End qualifying meet.

BABY VIKS WORK FOR SUCCESSFUL SEASON

Above: Decker and Vesey come over low hurdles in good form.

The Baby Vikings had won two meets by the early part of May, had taken two second places in triangular meets, and were looking forward to the qualifying meet at Auburn and possibly the conference meet at Renton.

Under the coaching of Al Jacobs, the squad beat Stewart, 60-22, and took 43 points to Kent-Meridian's 23 and Auburn's 24. They gave Clover Park a close race, losing 37½-31½, and came in third in one other meet against strong teams from Sumner and Renton.

PUYALLUP MERCHANTS SUPPORT VIKING

The business firms whose names appear on the following pages of the Viking have helped finance this edition by their advertising. This is the second year that the business staff has eliminated display advertising, replacing it with this present system which helps the annual staff meet expenses without increasing the size and cost of the book. The Viking staff would like to express their sincere appreciation to these merchants for their support.

Dear Sonya,
Lots of luck to you in the coming years at
C.H.S.. Have fun this summer and don't do anything I wouldn't do. Ha! Ha!

As ever,
Bert

SENIORS TAKE FINAL STEP

The feet that carried us through the halls and into the classrooms of Puyallup High School now carry us out the door into the world of new fields of learning. We do not leave empty-handed, however. We take with us many honors won and memories of adventures in fun and learning.

We leave behind us many thanks to the faculty and students of Puyallup High School for their fine cooperation and help in putting out the 1953 Viking. We also extend recognition to the Puyallup Valley Tribune for the printing and binding of the annual; to the S. K. Smith for producing the covers. And Mr. Harold Snodgrass, who, besides his duties as advisor of the Viking Vanguard, took over the job of advising the annual this year.

We hope that your 1953 Viking will guide your footsteps back down the paths of memory, for, in the years to come, our footsteps will be mere echoes in the halls of Puyallup High.

Dear Sonja
Your heart is not a plaything
Your heart is not a toy
So if you want it broken
Just give it to a boy
